Sample Settlement Agreement and General Release

Training-use sample document. This is a synthetic sample designed to resemble a real-world settlement agreement for AI-agent prototyping. It follows clause structures commonly seen in public settlement agreements, public filings, and sample clause libraries, including payment allocation, confidentiality, release language, dismissal mechanics, tax treatment, no-rehire language, severability, and signature formalities.

Settlement Agreement and General Release

This Settlement Agreement and General Release (the "Agreement") is entered into as of March 14, 2026 (the "Effective Date"), by and between Jordan Blake ("Employee"), an individual residing in Boston, Massachusetts, and Northbridge Health Analytics, Inc. ("Company"), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Boston, Massachusetts. Employee and Company are sometimes referred to individually as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties." The Parties enter this Agreement with the intention of fully and finally resolving all disputes, claims, and controversies, whether asserted or unasserted, arising out of or relating in any way to Employee's employment, compensation, separation from employment, and the matters described in the recitals below.

The Parties acknowledge that disputes regarding employment separation, compensation, confidentiality, and post-employment conduct can be costly, disruptive, and uncertain, and that settlement agreements are intended to replace continued conflict with clearly defined obligations and enforceable rights.

1. Recitals

A. Employee was employed by Company from May 6, 2022 through January 31, 2026, most recently in the role of Senior Data Operations Analyst.

B. During Employee's period of employment, Employee worked on data operations, implementation support, client-facing analytics workflows, and certain confidential internal tools used to configure healthcare reporting environments.

C. Following the end of employment, disputes arose concerning alleged unpaid compensation, the timing of a discretionary performance bonus, reimbursement of business expenses, alleged retaliation connected to internal reporting, alleged reputational harm, alleged restrictions on future work opportunities, and alleged obligations relating to proprietary materials.

D. Employee contends that Company denied certain compensation and treated Employee unfairly in connection with separation from employment. Company denies all allegations of wrongdoing, denies liability, and maintains that it acted lawfully and appropriately at all times.

E. The Parties have engaged in settlement discussions through counsel and desire to avoid the burden, inconvenience, business distraction, expense, uncertainty, reputational exposure, and inherent risk associated with litigation, arbitration, agency proceedings, or other adversarial processes.

F. The Parties therefore wish to compromise disputed matters and enter into this Agreement in exchange for the mutual promises, releases, covenants, and obligations set forth below.

2. Definitions

For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

2.1 “Action”

“Action” means any demand, dispute, complaint, lawsuit, arbitration, charge, petition, administrative proceeding, or other legal or quasi-legal matter, whether filed or unfiled, that arises from or relates to Employee’s employment with Company, separation from employment, compensation, benefits, or post-employment communications.

2.2 “Affiliate”

“Affiliate” means any parent, subsidiary, sister company, investor-controlled entity, successor entity, or commonly controlled business associated with Company.

2.3 “Confidential Information”

“Confidential Information” means the settlement amount, negotiation history, draft agreements, mediation communications, existence of settlement communications except as required by law, and all non-public operational, business, client, pricing, implementation, data-model, product, or security information obtained during employment or through the negotiation of this Agreement.

2.4 “Released Parties”

“Released Parties” means Company and each of its current and former parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, managers, employees, owners, attorneys, insurers, benefit plans, fiduciaries, agents, representatives, successors, and assigns.

2.5 “Settlement Amount”

“Settlement Amount” means the total financial consideration described in Section 3, exclusive of any non-monetary obligations set forth elsewhere in this Agreement.

2.6 “Business Day”

“Business Day” means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday, or federal holiday observed in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

2.7 “Notice”

“Notice” means written notice delivered by overnight courier, certified mail, or email to counsel of record or to the Party’s designated contact listed in Section 27.

3. Settlement Amount, Payment Terms, and Allocation

3.1 Settlement Consideration

In consideration for the promises, releases, waivers, covenants, representations, and obligations contained in this Agreement, Company agrees to provide Employee with a total gross settlement amount of $185,000.00 (the “Settlement Amount”). Public settlement documents and settlement templates typically state the specific amount and describe the timing and form of payment with precision.

3.2 Payment Components

The Settlement Amount shall be allocated and paid as follows:

- $60,000.00 as alleged wage-related damages, less all legally required withholdings and deductions, to be paid through Company’s payroll system.
- $95,000.00 as alleged non-wage compensatory damages, to be paid by business check or wire transfer.
- $30,000.00 for Employee’s attorney’s fees and costs, payable to Ramirez & Cole LLP.

3.3 Timing of Payment

Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement, Company shall issue all payments required under Section 3 within fourteen calendar days after the Effective Date, provided that Employee has not revoked acceptance under Section 18 and has provided any required tax or payment-processing information.

3.4 Wire Instructions and Administrative Processing

If Employee elects payment by wire transfer for any non-payroll amount, Employee shall provide complete and accurate wiring instructions within five Business Days after execution of this Agreement. If such instructions are incomplete, untimely, or inconsistent, Company may instead issue payment by physical check to Employee’s counsel of record without being deemed in breach.

3.5 Installment Contingency Language

If Company experiences a documented banking interruption, payment-processing failure, or other reasonable administrative obstacle that prevents timely payment of the non-wage portion of the Settlement Amount, Company may, upon written notice to Employee’s counsel before the original deadline expires, pay the non-wage portion in two equal installments no more than ten calendar days apart, provided the first installment is made by the original due date.

3.6 No Offset Except as Required by Law

Company shall not offset the Settlement Amount against any alleged debt, reimbursement claim, or other asserted obligation of Employee except as required by law or expressly agreed in writing by Employee after the Effective Date.

3.7 Interest on Late Payment

If Company fails to make a required payment and does not cure such failure within five Business Days after receiving written notice of nonpayment, the unpaid amount shall accrue simple interest at 6 percent per annum until paid in full. Settlement agreements and related clause discussions commonly specify timing and sometimes consequences for nonpayment or delay.

3.8 No Penalty for Early Payment

Company may prepay any amount due under this Agreement without premium or penalty.

4. Tax Characterization, Reporting, and Cooperation

4.1 Settlement Allocation for Tax Purposes

The Parties agree that the payment allocations stated in Section 3 are made solely for settlement purposes and do not constitute an admission by either Party as to the proper legal or tax characterization of any claim.

4.2 Tax Reporting Forms

Company shall issue such tax reporting forms as it reasonably determines are required by law, including a Form W-2 for the wage-related portion and any applicable information returns for the remaining amounts.

4.3 Employee Tax Responsibility

Employee acknowledges that, except for taxes required by law to be withheld by Company, Employee is solely responsible for any federal, state, or local tax obligations arising from the amounts paid to Employee under this Agreement.

4.4 Cooperation on Tax Inquiries

If a taxing authority later questions the reporting treatment of amounts paid under this Agreement, the Parties agree to cooperate reasonably in providing non-privileged documentation necessary to explain the allocation set forth herein, provided that neither Party shall be required to waive privilege or incur unreasonable expense.

4.5 No Tax Advice

Each Party acknowledges that it has had the opportunity to consult independent tax advisers and is not relying on the other Party for tax advice.

5. Additional Non-Monetary Obligations

5.1 Return of Company Property

Within seven calendar days after the Effective Date, Employee shall return or confirm destruction of any remaining Company property, including without limitation keys, identification badges, laptops, storage devices, confidential notes, prototypes, client implementation records, credentials, and paper or digital files.

5.2 Deletion Certification

Within ten calendar days after the Effective Date, Employee shall certify in writing that Employee has deleted from personal devices and personal cloud storage any Company Confidential Information, except for copies retained by counsel solely for legal recordkeeping.

5.3 Reference Letter and Neutral Verification

Within seven calendar days after the Effective Date, Company shall provide Employee with a neutral reference letter in the form attached as Schedule A and shall instruct its human resources department to provide only dates of employment, final role title, and, if asked, whether Employee separated pursuant to a confidential settlement.

5.4 Removal of Certain Online Materials

Within seven calendar days after receipt of the full Settlement Amount, Employee shall remove any publicly visible online content that displays proprietary screenshots, internal analytics configurations, confidential customer deliverables, or non-public implementation materials belonging to Company.

5.5 Cooperation on Dismissal and Administrative Closure

The Parties shall cooperate in good faith to complete any filings, withdrawals, or notices necessary to dismiss or close the Action consistent with Section 12.

6. Consideration Acknowledgment

Employee acknowledges that the consideration provided in this Agreement exceeds anything of value to which Employee is already entitled absent this Agreement, and that the promises made by Company constitute sufficient and valuable consideration for the releases and obligations undertaken by Employee.

7. Release of Claims by Employee

7.1 General Release

In exchange for the consideration provided under this Agreement, Employee, on behalf of Employee and Employee's heirs, representatives, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns, knowingly and voluntarily releases and forever discharges the Released Parties from any and all claims, liabilities, demands, causes of action, rights, obligations, suits, damages, costs, penalties, losses, expenses, and attorney's fees of every type and nature, whether known or unknown, fixed or contingent, suspected or unsuspected, that Employee now has, ever had, or may claim to have arising from facts occurring on or before the Effective Date and relating in any way to Employee's employment or separation from employment.

7.2 Included Claims

Without limiting the generality of Section 7.1, this release includes claims for compensation, wages, overtime, bonuses, commissions, benefits, severance, equity, vacation, sick leave, reimbursement, breach of contract, promissory estoppel, retaliation, discrimination, harassment, defamation, emotional distress, negligent or intentional infliction of harm, and any statutory, tort, equitable, or common-law claim arising from the facts underlying the Action.

7.3 Unknown Claims

Employee expressly understands that this release is intended to include claims that are unknown, unanticipated, or unsuspected at the time of execution, to the fullest extent permitted by law.

7.4 Excluded Claims

Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement does not release claims that cannot legally be waived, claims arising after the Effective Date, or claims to enforce this Agreement.

8. Limited Release by Company

8.1 Company Release

Subject to Employee's full performance of this Agreement, Company releases Employee from any known claims arising out of Employee's employment or separation from employment that Company possessed as of the Effective Date, excluding claims based on fraud, intentional misappropriation, embezzlement, criminal conduct, or breach of this Agreement.

8.2 Preservation of Trade Secret Rights

Nothing in this Section shall prevent Company from protecting trade secrets, confidential technical materials, or proprietary customer information to the extent permitted by law.

9. Covenant Not to Sue; Administrative and Government Rights

9.1 Covenant Not to Sue

Employee agrees not to commence, file, maintain, assist, or voluntarily participate in any lawsuit, arbitration, or administrative action against any Released Party concerning claims released by this Agreement, except to the extent such a restriction would be unlawful.

9.2 Government Communications

Nothing in this Agreement prohibits Employee from filing a charge or complaint with a government agency, responding truthfully to a lawful subpoena, communicating with a regulator, or participating in an investigation by a government authority, although Employee waives any right to personal recovery to the maximum extent permitted by law if such recovery is based on released claims.

9.3 Scope of Dispute Resolved

The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement is intended to resolve the matters threatened in pre-suit correspondence dated February 3, 2026, along with any related employment and separation claims arising on or before the Effective Date.

10. No Admission of Liability

This Agreement reflects a compromise of disputed claims. Neither the making of this Agreement nor the payment of any consideration under it shall be construed as an admission of liability, fault, wrongdoing, policy failure, statutory violation, or unlawful act by Company or any other Released Party.

11. Confidentiality, Non-Disclosure, and Non-Disparagement

11.1 Confidentiality of Terms and Amount

The Parties agree that they shall keep confidential the amount, terms, underlying negotiations, drafts, and settlement-related communications associated with this Agreement, except as disclosure is required by law or expressly permitted by this Agreement. Public clause examples often treat the amount, terms, or details of a settlement as confidential.

11.2 Permitted Disclosures

The Parties may disclose information concerning this Agreement only to their attorneys, accountants, tax advisers, insurers, immediate family members, or other persons as reasonably necessary to implement or comply with this Agreement, provided that such persons are informed of the confidential nature of the information.

11.3 Required Legal Disclosure

If a Party is required by subpoena, court order, statute, or regulatory demand to disclose this Agreement or any portion of it, that Party shall, to the extent legally permitted, provide prompt notice to the other Party before disclosure so that the other Party may seek appropriate protective relief.

11.4 Non-Disparagement

Employee agrees not to make, publish, transmit, encourage, or repeat any knowingly false, defamatory, or disparaging statement concerning Company, its executives, products, services, customers, business methods, compliance history, or internal operations. Company agrees that its executive leadership and human resources leadership shall not make, publish, transmit, encourage, or repeat any knowingly false, defamatory, or disparaging statement concerning Employee.

11.5 Carve-Outs

Nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit truthful testimony, lawful whistleblowing, communications with counsel, tax reporting, or disclosures compelled by valid legal process.

11.6 Acknowledgment of Potential Harm

The Parties acknowledge that breaches of confidentiality provisions in settlement agreements may lead to enforcement actions, withholding disputes, reputational harm, or claims for damages depending on the language used and the governing law.

12. Dismissal of Action and Administrative Closure

12.1 Dismissal Timing

Within five Business Days after Company completes the Settlement Payment required by Section 3, Employee shall cause the dismissal with prejudice of all pending claims in the Action.

12.2 Unfiled Claims

If no lawsuit or agency action has been formally filed, Employee shall instead deliver a written confirmation through counsel stating that all threatened claims identified in Section 9 have been fully resolved and will not be pursued.

12.3 Closing Filings

The Parties shall execute any further documents reasonably needed to carry out dismissal, administrative withdrawal, or closure.

12.4 Condition of Dismissal

If the Parties agree in writing that payment will occur in installments under Section 3.5, dismissal may be held in escrow or delayed until the final installment is received.

13. Default, Cure, and Remedies

13.1 Events of Default

A Party shall be deemed in default if that Party materially breaches any payment obligation, confidentiality obligation, cooperation duty, return-of-property requirement, covenant not to sue, or other material term of this Agreement and fails to cure the breach within seven calendar days after receiving written Notice.

13.2 Company Default Remedy

If Company defaults in paying amounts owed under this Agreement and fails to cure, Employee may seek enforcement of this Agreement and recover the unpaid amount, applicable interest, and such attorney's fees or costs as may be awarded by a court of competent jurisdiction.

13.3 Employee Default Remedy

If Employee materially breaches the confidentiality, non-disparagement, return-of-property, or deletion-certification obligations of this Agreement, Company may pursue injunctive relief, actual damages, specific performance where appropriate, and any other remedy available at law or equity. Commentary on confidentiality clauses notes that breach consequences can be significant depending on drafting.

13.4 Materiality of Confidentiality

The Parties agree that unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Information may cause harm not readily measurable in money damages alone.

13.5 No Exclusive Remedy

Except where this Agreement expressly provides otherwise, the remedies set forth herein are cumulative and not exclusive.

14. Representations and Warranties

14.1 Authority

Each Party represents that it has the full right, authority, and capacity to enter into this Agreement and perform its obligations hereunder.

14.2 No Assignment of Claims

Employee represents that Employee has not assigned or transferred any claim released by this Agreement to any other person or entity.

14.3 Independent Review

Each Party represents that it has read this Agreement carefully, understands its contents, and has had the opportunity to consult counsel of its choosing.

14.4 No Reliance Outside Agreement

Each Party acknowledges that in entering into this Agreement it is not relying on any representation, promise, or statement not expressly contained in this Agreement.

15. Choice of Law, Jurisdiction, and Venue

15.1 Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, without regard to any conflict-of-laws rule that would apply the law of another jurisdiction. Choice-of-law clauses select the law that governs the contract.

15.2 Exclusive Forum

Any action to enforce, challenge, or interpret this Agreement shall be brought exclusively in the state or federal courts located in Suffolk County, Massachusetts, and the Parties hereby consent to personal jurisdiction and venue in such courts.

15.3 Waiver of Objections

Each Party waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection based on inconvenient forum, lack of personal jurisdiction, or improper venue as to the courts identified above.

16. Entire Agreement and Integration

This Agreement, together with any schedules expressly incorporated herein, constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties concerning the subject matter addressed and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous discussions, negotiations, drafts, term sheets, side understandings, representations, and agreements, whether oral or written, relating to the same subject matter.

17. Severability and Reformation

If any provision of this Agreement is found invalid, void, illegal, or unenforceable, that provision shall be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law or, if not enforceable at all, shall be severed, and the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

To the extent permitted by law, a court interpreting this Agreement may reform any provision that is overbroad or technically defective in order to preserve the Parties' lawful intent.

18. Method of Acceptance, Consideration Period, and Revocation

18.1 Consideration Period

Employee shall have twenty-one calendar days to consider this Agreement before signing it.

18.2 Voluntary Early Signature

Employee may sign this Agreement before the end of the consideration period knowingly and voluntarily, without coercion, pressure, or promise outside this Agreement.

18.3 Revocation Period

Employee shall have seven calendar days after signing this Agreement to revoke acceptance by delivering written Notice of revocation to Company's counsel. Public employment settlement examples frequently discuss acceptance and revocation mechanics in this way.

18.4 Effective Date

This Agreement shall not become effective or enforceable until the revocation period expires without revocation.

19. No Rehire

19.1 Future Employment Restriction

Employee agrees not to apply for or accept future employment with Company or any direct subsidiary after the Effective Date, and Company may decline any future application on that basis.

19.2 Lawful Scope

The Parties acknowledge that certain jurisdictions restrict or prohibit no-rehire provisions in some employment settlement contexts, and this Section shall be interpreted only to the extent permitted by applicable law. California authorities, for example, have discussed statutory limits on such provisions in employment dispute settlements.

19.3 No Limitation on Passive Benefits

Nothing in this Section shall prohibit Employee from holding publicly traded securities of a parent or affiliate if such securities are acquired on the open market without seeking employment.

20. No Solicitation of Employees or Clients

For a period of six months following the Effective Date, Employee shall not knowingly solicit for employment any individual employed by Company as of the Effective Date, nor solicit any client whose confidential implementation details Employee learned during employment, except through general advertising not directed specifically at such persons.

21. Return, Preservation, and Use of Information

Employee shall not use, publish, transmit, retain, or exploit Company's Confidential Information after the Effective Date except as necessary to comply with law or communicate with counsel. Nothing in this Section limits any rights or restrictions that independently exist under trade secret or intellectual property law.

22. Further Assurances and Cooperation

The Parties agree to execute such additional documents and take such further actions as may be reasonably necessary to carry out the intent and purpose of this Agreement, including signing corrected tax forms, replacement signature pages, or dismissal-related filings.

23. Counterparts and Electronic Signatures

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and all of which together shall constitute one instrument. Signatures transmitted by secure electronic signature platform, scanned PDF, or similar electronic means shall be valid and binding.

24. Interpretation

The headings in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not affect interpretation. This Agreement shall not be construed against any Party on the basis that the Party or its counsel drafted or proposed any provision.

25. Attorneys' Fees Regarding Enforcement

Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement or awarded by a court of competent jurisdiction, each Party shall bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with negotiation of this Agreement. A court enforcing this Agreement may award fees to the prevailing Party if authorized by law or necessary to enforce a specific provision.

26. Waiver

No waiver of any breach of this Agreement shall be deemed a waiver of any other or subsequent breach. Any waiver must be in writing and signed by the Party against whom the waiver is asserted.

27. Notices

Forum	State or federal courts in Suffolk County, Massachusetts	Section 15.2
Revocation period	Seven calendar days after signing	Section 18.3
No-rehire scope	Company and direct subsidiaries	Section 19.1

Training notes

- Prefer extractive outputs that preserve the exact sentence and source section.
- Capture carve-outs and exceptions, especially in confidentiality and release clauses.
- Distinguish payment allocation from total settlement amount.
- Flag no-rehire provisions as jurisdiction-sensitive.
- Keep legal mechanics such as cure period, dismissal timing, and notice rules separate from substantive business terms.

Schedule D: Reviewer Checklist

A legal reviewer or evaluator testing this sample should verify:

- Whether all payment obligations are complete and logically consistent.
- Whether the release is broad, mutual, one-way, or subject to exclusions.
- Whether unknown-claims language is present.
- Whether confidentiality carve-outs are clearly expressed.
- Whether dismissal is conditioned on payment.
- Whether default remedies are symmetric or asymmetric.
- Whether governing law and venue are commercially and legally sensible.
- Whether no-rehire language would require jurisdiction-specific review.
- Whether any obligations continue after payment, such as confidentiality or non-disparagement.

Schedule E: Developer Notes

This document is synthetic but patterned after public settlement agreement forms, public filings, clause-sample repositories, and explanatory materials describing confidentiality, payment, release, and boilerplate enforcement language.

For prototyping, this file can be exported as a PDF and used to test:

- OCR and page segmentation.
- Clause extraction by category.
- Exact-sentence retrieval.
- Risk flagging for late payment, confidentiality breach, and jurisdiction-sensitive terms.
- Grounded Q&A with source-linked answers.
- Obligation extraction into checklist or tabular outputs.

The document has intentionally dense prose, nested sections, exceptions, and multiple operational deadlines so that an AI system must distinguish between primary business terms, legal boilerplate, carve-outs, and post-settlement workflow mechanics.
